Friday, June 7th

We cross the border to Wales today, on our way to our base for the next two nights, Welshpool. En-route, we'll stop to tour the National Trust site of Erddig Hall. Sitting on a dramatic escarpment above the winding Clywedog river, Erddig tells the 250-year story of a gentry family's relationship with its servants. In the afternoon, we visit the private garden Edge Villa in Shropshire before arriving in Welshpool in the late afternoon. Dinner will be close to the hotel at 7:00 this evening. Overnight Welshpool (BD)

Saturday, June 8th

We'll visit the Castle and Garden at Powis Castle this morning. After our visit, we'll have a break for lunch before traveling to our afternoon visit, the gardens at Glansevern Hall. Overnight Welshpool (B)

Portmeirion

Sunday, June 9th

We're traveling to the Northwest part of Wales this morning. We'll stop for lunch in the Italianate village of Portmeirion. After lunch, we will have a tour at Plas Brondanw Gardens. From there, we'll enjoy a scenic ride through Snowdonia National Park by steam train from Porthmadog to our hotel in Conwy. Dinner near the hotel this evening. Overnight Conwy (BLD)

Monday, June 10th

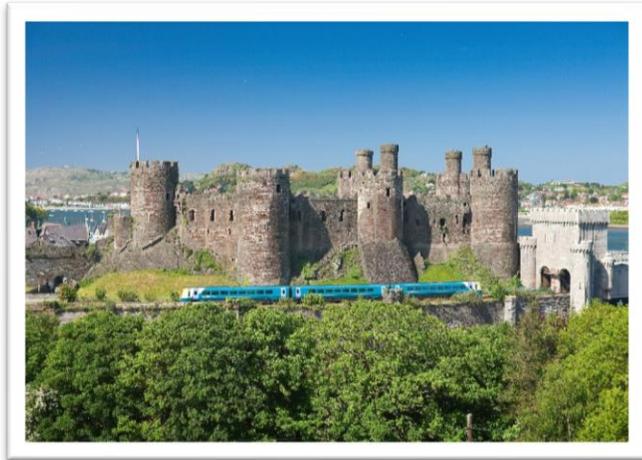

Steam Railway

We'll leave just after breakfast with a short drive to Llanberis, the terminus for the narrow-gauge rack-in-pinion railway that takes you on a 2.5 hour round trip journey to the highest point in Wales (and the British Isles outside Scotland). We'll have time for photos on the summit before returning to Llanberis. We next visit the gardens at Overnight Conwy (B)

Tuesday, June 11th

Visit to Anglesey Island today with two garden visits. The first visit is and NGS Garden called Llanidan Hall. (two choices for an afternoon visit. You decide. Our afternoon visit is the National Trust Garden of Plas Newydd. Overnight Conwy (B)
