Shore tours:

Uniworld includes at least one tour per day. Northwest Travel Service, in conjunction with participating winemakers, will offer a selection of optional tours along the cruise route.

Masterpiece Excursions are offered by Uniworld in addition to their included excursions at an additional cost. Tours labeled “Masterpiece” will be booked and paid for on board the ship. Many of these tours are limited capacity. Your priority to participate in these tours is determined when you book your cruise.

Generally speaking, additional wine tasting and walking tours are priced at cost and would be in the $50-$150 range. In most cases, a special wine has been requested to enhance the normal tasting experience. Michelin lunches, as you might expect, will be more expensive.

Most wineries in France expect that you will make a purchase when you visit. Keep this in mind when booking a visit. While Uniworld generally charges a corkage fee on board, these fees are waived for Northwest Travel groups. If you find a bottle you want to bring back to share with your friends, there is no charge to enjoy your bottle in the lounge, on deck, or at dinner.

Most of these tours are limited capacity. Others must have a minimum to operate the tour or visit. You’ll see the prices posted for the optional tours, followed by the minimum and maximum number of participants for each tour.

Arles Sunday, May 26th

Embarkation day-no specific tours planned. The ship will overnight in Arles. Guarantee there will be something going on after dinner, either on board ship or nearby.

Arles Monday, May 27th

1A Included Tour Arles Walking Tour AM

Van Gogh paid tribute to Arles’ atmospheric beauty in some 200 paintings, including Starry Night Over the Rhône. It’s an ancient city boasting a remarkable collection of Roman ruins; among them are a theater where the famous Venus of Arles—on display in the Louvre—was discovered in 1651 and an amphitheater that is still used for sporting events.

Join a local expert for a stroll through this district, where medieval houses crowd in among the ancient structures and the city gates date to the 13th century. Pause before the town hall, built with stone quarried from the Roman theater, and the Romanesque St. Trophime Church, which was erected in the 12th century. It replaced the church where St. Augustine, the man who converted the inhabitants of England to Christianity, was consecrated by the first archbishop of Canterbury. Walk in Van Gogh's footsteps past the cheery yellow Café de Nuit, still open and still the same shade of yellow it was when he painted it.

During your free time after the tour, you can peruse the local shops, go olive tasting or delve further into Arles' stunning collection of architectural treasures.

1B Tour Option Michelin Star Lunch at Auberge de Saint Remy

An outstanding country restaurant located a short drive from Arles in the center of the village of Saint Remy de Provence. This restaurant attained it's 1-star Michelin rating just 4 years ago. We'll dine al fresco if the weather is agreeable. Otherwise, we'll stay indoors to enjoy a 4-course lunch with wine pairing. This small group will travel by coach from Arles, enjoy lunch, then return to the ship that afternoon. This option includes transportation, lunch with wine pairings. A note about Michelin experiences: There are no accommodations made for food allergies, sensitivities or dislikes. The menu is as it is presented. No deviations. Appropriate dress is required. For lunch, this means a minimum of long pants and collared shirts. No tees, shorts, no sandals. It would not be unusual to see many jackets and an occasional tie in the dining room as well, but that's little overdone, especially if it's a warm day. This restaurant is opening specially for us on this Monday with a minimum participation of 25 guests. Maximum capacity is 35 guests. If I had to pick just one Michelin Experience, it might be this one over Bocese just because I think the one-star places try a little harder.

1C Tour Option Van Gogh Tour of Provence

An afternoon coach tour to the town of Saint Remy de Provence and the mental hospital where Van Gogh spent a year during one of the most prolific periods of his life. A local guide will provide narration and insight into the life and times of the artist as you experience the scenic drive to Saint Remy.

Spend a fun and relaxing afternoon paddling five miles down the clear tranquil waters of the Gardon River. Accompanied by a sound of chirping cicadas, you'll paddle from Collias to Remoulins, under the arches of the 2,000-year-old, UNESCO-designated Pont du Gard.

2E Tour Option Domaine Mousset Wine Tasting

2F Tour Option Domaine Pegau Wine Tasting

Prestige tasting at this 4-hectare estate, created in 1987 by Laurence, the daughter of the owners of Feraud and Fils estate next door. The domaine, generally open only in the morning for tasting, has made an exception to welcome our group.

2G Masterpiece Collection Chateauneuf-du-Pape Wine Tasting

A highly celebrated appellation in a region already known for producing great wines, Châteauneuf du Pape is not to be missed. We'll visit one of the wonderful wineries in this district, where you'll be greeted by the sommelier for a cellar tour and a tasting of the wines produced here. Winery visited is Pavillon Bouachon.

Outside of these two wineries that accommodate group tasting, you have many opportunities for food and drink in the village. Vinadea is the place to go if you're looking for a specific bottle to purchase. There are numerous producers in the village where you can taste and purchase wines. Many producers in the area don't accept groups of any size, but are available for individual visits. These include Chateau Fortia, Clos de Calvaire, Chateau Maucoil, Domaine Tour Saint Michel, and Maison Brotte. Some simply don't open to the public for tasting. Beaucastel is in the middle of a renovation and have closed their tasting room.

Viviers Wednesday, May 29th

3A Included Tour “Ardeche Village Day” tour

Sycamores line some of Viviers’ stone-paved streets (planted, so they say, to provide shade for Napoleon’s soldiers), and houses here bear the watermarks of floods over the years. A local expert will show you the fountain squares in the Old Town, which combines Roman and medieval influences, and cobblestone lanes so narrow you can stand in the middle and touch the medieval houses on either side. Viviers climbs a hill crowned by 12th-century St. Vincent’s Cathedral. View the smallest cathedral in France before you meet some of the local residents.

You might choose to learn how a local potter makes the attractive wares sold at Poterie; step into a villager’s home; or sample the wares at a popular bar. Don’t feel that you must opt for the bar if you’d like a little refreshment; all visits include an aperitif. On your way back to the ship, stop to try your hand at a game of pétanque, which is akin to horseshoes, only it’s played with steel balls.

3B Tour Option Domaine Cordis Family Truffle Farm

We’ll travel to the village of Grignan and the truffle farm of Didier Chabert and his daughter Audrey, Domaine Cordis, for an enthusiastic and entertaining lesson about the three types of truffles grown in the Drôme region. We return to the ship in time for sailing at 1:00 PM.

3C Masterpiece Tour Option La Rabassière Truffle Farm and Grignan Village

Beautiful Renaissance châteaux dot the hillsides as you travel to the medieval village of Grignan, situated in the Provençal countryside. A pale stone construction perched on a hilltop and surrounded by lush landscapes, Grignan is about as picturesque as can be. Your next stop: a family-owned truffle farm for a tasting of their "black diamonds," accompanied by a local wine. Meet the farmer for an introduction to the mystery and complexity of black truffles, partake in a hunt led by truffle dogs and learn about the production of this highly valued ingredient. This tour will travel overland to rejoin the ship in the late afternoon.

3D Cote Rotie Tasting Join one or more of our winemakers in the lounge for a tasting of wines from the Cote du Rhone. While the specific producers won’t be known until the day of, you'll have at least 3 wines to sample from some of the more established wine makers in the area.

Tournon/l'Hermitage

Thursday, May 30th

4A Tour Option Maison Guigal

Depart from the ship by coach at 9:00 AM for a 45-minute drive up the Rhone to the Guigal Chateau. Our hosts will split the group into smaller groups of 15 for the tour and tasting. You'll tour the production facility, followed by the tasting of 4 wines at le Caveau du Château. 4 wines may be : Saint Joseph (white), Condrieu (white), Côte-Rôtie (red), Hermitage (red). Wines are subject to change. There will be a few minutes to visit the museum there after the tasting. You'll return to the ship by 12:45 PM in time for lunch.

4B Tour Option Valrhona Chocolate and the chocolate process

We'll leave the ship at 9:00 for the short stroll to Valrhona. We have an entry to the Cite de Chocolate at 9:00 AM. After an hour to enjoy your own self-guided tour and tasting of this amazing immersion into chocolate, you'll meet for a 30-minute workshop that will take you through the process of "bean to bar". After the workshop, you're free to stay at Valrhona for as long as you like. Reservations and advance tickets are now required to visit the factory. You cannot visit without an advance ticket. This tour requires a minimum of 20 participants.

4C Included Tour "Go Active" Hermitage vineyards hike with wine tasting

Are you ready to explore the steepest vineyards on the Rhône? The vines producing the world-famous Hermitage wines grow on precipitous slopes above the river, so steep that terracing is essential. Hike along the paths that parallel the rough courses of stone through the vineyards, each one situated to catch the afternoon sun. After you've seen how the grapes—primarily Syrah—are grown, taste the fruit that has been transformed by the vintners' craft into legendary wine. Your guide will bring wines to sample at various stages of this hike.

4D Included Tour Tournon and Tain-l'Hermitage village stroll with wine tasting

Nestled on opposite sides of the river in the heart of the Côtes du Rhône, the twin cities of Tournon and Tain-l'Hermitage are an ideal destination for connoisseurs of fine wine. Tournon may be a small town, but stirring events took place here: A castle was raised on the hilltop in the 10th century to protect the region, and new fortifications were added over the centuries, including two “new” towers built to defend against Protestant attacks in the 16th century. You'll see the handsome houses constructed by wealthy merchants and garrison officers when you walk through the Rue de Doux area, and you'll pass the 14th-century church—unusual for the number of houses incorporated in its walls—and the oldest secondary school in France. Cross the pretty flower-decked Marc Seguin suspension bridge to Tain-l'Hermitage to visit local wine cellars, where you'll taste the region's famous Côtes du Rhône, Saint-Joseph and Crozes-Hermitage wines.

4E Masterpiece Tour Option Premium Wine Tasting-Hermitage Hill

Embark on drive through Tain-l'Hermitage and up to its hilltop vineyards for an excellent vista overlooking rows upon rows of neatly arranged vines, the river and the village below. At the very top of the hill, you'll discover that the wines produced here are just as phenomenal as the view. During your private outdoor tasting, a sommelier will present you with a selection of premium wines, explaining the terroir and the characteristics of each sample.

4F Cellar tour and tasting Ferraton Caveau

Visit Ferraton Pere and Fils for a tour of the cellar and tasting of five wines, Croes-Hermitage, Saint-Joseph, Hermitage, Cornas, Condrieu. The winery is just a short walk from the ship.

4G Tour Option Paul Jaboulet Aine

Still trying to fix a location for this tasting, whether it will be at the winery or at the Vineum located in the center of Tain. Four of their wines are on the menu.

4H Tour Option Maison Chapoutier

The identity of Maison M. CHAPOUTIER, through its identity: the Selection Parcelleire and wines from the Hermitage Hill. Exceptional bottles for a privileged and prestigious tasting service. White wines• AOP Hermitage Chante-Alouette• AOP Ermitage De l'Orée
Red wines• AOP Hermitage Monier de la Sizeranne• AOP Ermitage Le Pavillon• AOP Ermitage Ermite

Lyon Friday, May 31st

5A Included Tour Exclusive Silk Weavers walking tour

Lyon's history is entwined with silk, which dominated the city's economy for centuries—at one time, almost a third of the city's population were silk weavers. Jump on a tram and head for Lyon-Perrache station with your guide, who will take you into the historic Saint-Jean Quarter, part of the UNESCO-honored Old Town. The Gothic cathedral is probably the most striking heirloom of the Middle Ages, but the tall rose and ochre buildings dating to the Renaissance pay tribute to the importance of the silk trade with Italy in that era.

Enter the courtyard of the Gadagne Museum, which is housed in an early- 16th-century building, and stroll along Rue Juiverie, which has been occupied since Roman times and was once home to Nostradamus. You'll see some of the traboules, the old passageways that snake between and through buildings, secret shortcuts that silk weavers took to keep their delicate fabrics out of the rain. You'll pass cozy bouchons, which serve traditional local dishes, and you'll have a chance to see a Jacquard loom in use.

5B Included Tour Lyon Panoramic Tour with Traboules Visit

No one eats better than the citizens of Lyon, a tradition that harks back more than a century, when women opened unpretentious restaurants, called bouchons, to feed hungry workers. The traditional bouchon serves hearty meat-based dishes, but quenelles—luscious dumplings—and a seasoned cream cheese called cervelle de canut are longtime local favorites too.

While explaining Lyon's important gastronomic history, your guide will show you the city's bouchons and specialty food shops and take you into the legendary main market, Les Halles de Lyon Paul Bocuse. There you'll find stalls brimming with local produce, fish, game and cheeses, all beautifully displayed on black marble countertops—and you'll have a chance to taste some of these delectable offerings.

Don't miss the macarons! On the way to these fabulous culinary destinations, you'll see some of Lyon's historic old quarter, with its many spectacular examples of medieval and Renaissance architecture, and les traboules, the city's old passageways.

5C Included Tour Exclusive guided "Go Active" Lyon peninsula bike tour

Get out and about with a bike ride along the river. Lyon boasts a thriving bike-rental scene, which tells you just how popular this mode of transportation is—you will definitely have two-wheeled company as you pedal along the banks of the Rhône on a sunny day.

Your route takes you over the new Raymond Barre Bridge, past the spectacular new Museum of Confluences (so named because it sits at the confluence of the Rhône and the Saône) and along the peninsula, a strip of land with the Saône on one side and the Rhône on the other. Here, houseboats tie up along the banks; swans float on the water; and locals take advantage of the lovely parklike setting. You'll also have a great view of the Old Town on the other side of the river. This outing gives you a little taste of what it is like to live in Lyon, as well as a little exercise. This is a pedal bike tour over mostly flat terrain.

5D Tour option Auberge du Pont de Collanges Lunch

Lunch at the restaurant created by legendary chef Paul Bocuse. In 2017, Chef Thierry Rautureau hosted a small group from the ship at the restaurant. My sister and a number of friends attended and raved about the quality of cuisine, the presentation, and the overall experience. I specifically chose a northbound itinerary for the cruise to ensure that the restaurant was open. This two-star Michelin Restaurant is the place where Paul Bocuse reinvented French Haute Cuisine. This is a 5-course lunch with wines selected by the restaurant, but will include a glass of Champagne, a bottle of Condrieu, a bottle of Cote Rotie, and a glass of sweet wine with dessert.

The menu

- Amuse-bouche de l'Auberge
- Duck foie gras confit with frosted apple, puff pastry brioche
- Quenelles of lobster and pikeperch, Champagne sauce
- Fillet of beef en croute, Périgueux sauce
- Fresh and matured cheese from our terroirs
- Sweet Suggestion from Chef Benoît Charvet

Macon/Beaune

Saturday, June 1st

This is our day in Burgundy. Your options to taste wine are numerous. You've got a couple lunch options with local dishes paired with wine. You're also free to explore the town and dine on your own. There are many of the local wine producers that just don't work with groups. I've listed a few that I couldn't book, but are open to individuals.

Also, lunch is on your own today. You've got a lot of wonderful options for great food in Beaune. Given that it's a Saturday, you should make reservations. See the short list at the end of this day's listing.

6A Masterpiece Collection Beaune Hospice and Chateau de Rully

Drive through picturesque hamlets and pristine vineyards to the Burgundy wine estate of Château de Rully, where you'll meet the owners and indulge in a lunch showcasing regional specialties. You'll also enjoy a tasting that will bring to life the delicate flavors of southern Burgundy wine and illuminate the passion behind local winemaking traditions.

6B Included Tour Burgundy Landscapes, Beaune and the Hospices

Beaune may not be a large town, but it brims with history, a wealth of splendid regional architecture and incredible food. Nestled inside medieval ramparts, Beaune was the seat of the warlike dukes of Burgundy until the 16th century. It is best known for two magnificent sights: the Hospices de Beaune and the open-air market.

You'll recognize the Hospices de Beaune (also known as Hôtel-Dieu) immediately by its fabulous multicolored-tile roof—it's a symbol of Burgundy. Founded as a charitable institution by the duke's chancellor in 1443, the hospital became a model for charitable giving in southern France, one with a unique fundraising tradition that continues to this day. Over the centuries, the hospice monks were given wine and vineyards, and they began selling the wine at auction in order to support their charitable work. The wine auction is now world-famous, and the institution remains a working hospital for the poor, with modern facilities standing alongside the historic Hôtel-Dieu. After seeing Hôtel-Dieu, check out the farmers' market, which spills from street to street in the Old Town. Cheeses, fruits, vegetables, local sausages, breads—all are on colorful display here. Browse and assemble your own picnic lunch or take advantage of one of the many delightful sidewalk cafés for lunch. Note: Today's lunch will be on your own.
